1. Journey

Come take a journey with me where no one can enter unless permitted by the gates.
The place we'll visit is far beyond the reaches of mortals, far beyond where you will never meet with fate.

Trip along gold and dusty trails where thoughts become reality and dreams unfold.
Majestic mountains that are there for the taking, and all your fantasies are rich with gold.

Chorus:

This place will be named by no one
It's a fortress for those who pay the toll
To get here you must stretch out your open hand
And eat my little friend with your soul

So now you've arrived come on in and enjoy the space.
Open up your mind to the spiritual embrace.
Keep your channels open and it will all happen for you.
The panorama of colors, hard to believe that it's true.
The beauty is overwhelming, delightful to my senses.
With such an honorable friend, I think I will take my chances.

Chorus

The beauty is overwhelming, delightful to my senses.
With such an honorable friend, I think I will take my chances.

Chorus

2. Decide

Anonymous faces flash by me traveling through city streets.

A man is sleeping in a corner. He looks so peaceful.

While someone sitting in a fortress away from the neon lights,
Surrounded by a manicured lawn, being tricked into thinking that everything's all right.

I will decide, how to live my life.

I will decide, how to live my - live my - live my - life!

Go to work from nine to five, stress levels on overdrive.

I need so many things to survive - work a little faster.

Life is so convenient today, everything new and improved.

Things make life easier - I thought, you thought - but we were fooled, we were fooled.

Will you decide, how to live your life?

Will you decide, how to live your - live your - live your - life?

The man living in the streets, he aint got no work to go to.

But the busy eyes don't want to recognize he's not the problem.

While someone is sitting in a fortress in front of a plasma screen.

Eating processed, fast food, unaware of the truth that could set them free (3x).

We will decide, how to live our lives.

We will decide, how to live our - live our - live our - lives!

Set me free. Set us free. Set all free.

3. Sweet Valentine

You look so good to me that I cannot disagree
When others say they see
A love that was meant to be

Chorus
Sweet Valentine
So happy your mine
Together all the time
Simply divine

Even when your not here
I feel you with me dear
Though time slips by I cheer
'cause I know you'll soon be here

Chorus

4. Enchantment

It's cold outside my window tonight and the stars are shining bright.

It's quiet inside my mind feeling peaceful and kind.

Starlight star bright, first star I see tonight, wish I may wish I might have one wish tonight.

Chorus

Harming no one, helping all,
on compassionate ears I wish my words to fall.
Listen, you'll hear the call of Love.

If I had all the money in the world, all the riches, gold, diamonds and pearls,
I would share them with all my relations.

If I had all the power in the world, all the guns and jets and bombs to explode,
I'd let them sit and rot, and turn into dust.

People, people, people keep your power for yourselves.
Share it with another, but don't let yourself be used,
'cause when you do the universe suffers with you.

Chorus

Love is not an object, a feeling or a deed.
Love is not something you can possess.
Words alone make it difficult to explain, but my wish is to communicate this thing.
Love one another no matter what you've done,
'cause in the end you may be the one who needs compassion.

Chorus

5. Rushes of You

Here I am feeling rushes of you not knowing whether you'll return.
But knowing it doesn't matter, I know that time is true.
Flashing moments of sheer ecstasy, deep in your eyes - deep in my body.

Chorus

Together breaking through time space. Now feeling then.
Time doesn't matter...time doesn't matter...time doesn't matter

I daydream your breath on my neck. I'm dancing through the possibilities.
Immersing my thoughts on you, I know that time is true.
I felt so close for a moment in time, your body within mine.

Chorus

I sing my song for you, may the truth my lips reveal.
Each moment is a lifetime. Trust that time is true.
Here I am feeling rushes of you, knowing you're with me through time.
Here I am feeling rushes of you.

6. Seeker

(chorus - poem by e.e. cumings)

It's all so much
But I do my part
Every day it changes
Depends on how I start
World spinning
Feels out of control
Bring it on back home
Where the garden grows

Chorus

seeker of truth
follow no path
all paths lead where truth is here

Stress filled society
Breath out
Life is simple
Time is money
Do you want that thing
Is it really important
Let the telephone ring
Chorus
Set out for the goal
But don't forget the way
If your feet are tired
Stop and take a break
The means are everything
When you get to the end

If you stumble

Get up again

Chorus

7. Can't Do Anything

There she goes again picking the wrong man
I just wanted to be there for her
Strained conversations, nothing left to say
Can't do anything for anyone but me

Beyond control, I find refuge
Do what you need to, get ready for the crash

Surfin' through the channels nothing on but news
Murder, weather reports, another scandal and an oily war
Turn off the TV, there's so much more to see
Can't do anything for anyone but me
Dig deep, my heart's so full I just want to help
Can't do anything for anyone but me

8. Arrow

When you said "I love you" I believe in that moment was truth.
The way we felt - honesty in our eternity.
But now I'm alone to trust my instincts that everything's o.k., everything's o.k.
At times the world smashes me right in the face.
Gotta peel myself off the pavement and start the new day.
A voice inside me says it'll be all right - let it go, let it go.

Chorus

Here once again, an arrow shot through my heart.
Facing fear, an unknown journey, I courageously embark, courageously embark!

Talkin' is easy until I'm away from you.
Unanswered questions - demons invading my solitude.
I believe a light shines inside of me, shines inside of me.

Chorus

In my search for true love I will do almost anything.
Except invade your boundaries - my love I will restrain.
'Cause I understand the best thing for me - let it be, let it be.

Chorus

9. The Climb

Picking up pieces of where I left off
Something stirs inside me to start again.
I've watched from shadows long enough
It's time for action from within.
Spiraling a stairway is exhausting
But the higher I climb the higher my mind.

Chorus

So I begin again.
One step ahead.
My muscles are conditioned for the climb.

The cave is warm and comforting
Air damp and nourishing.
Rejuvenating my body
Fire circulating through my veins.

Chorus

Senses awaken to the heart's delight
Flowing through a river of dreams.
The stairway is giving way
To the current of the stream.

Chorus

10. My Way Now

I sit and wonder what I'm gonna do with myself
When I was a little girl they told me how I should be As I grew up I believed their words were real
But now I'm here I feel I was lead astray ...I was lead away
Being is believing and believing makes reality
It doesn't matter anymore what they said was not real I'm living my own life now the way I ought to Happiness my reality I'm not waiting for their truth...I'm not wanting their truth

Chorus

I'm fed up, I've had enough, I want it –
My way now, I want it – My way now, and I'll do it right
They told me, "Stop Girl. Give it up!" But I want it –
My way now, I want it – My way now, and I'll do it right

So now I'm grown up and it's become very clear
What I want is what I'll get I'll receive all I give I'll live in heaven now my reward is today
Some words lead to hell so question what they say...so question what they say I'm breaking boundaries that were falsely made
To keep me quieted my spirit in a cage
As I go deeper I feel my rage
Created by the lies that we should live with fear...that we should live with guilt

Chorus

11. Unpredictable

The glow of you lights up the room
Our imaginary life is fully in bloom
Someone is rapping at the door
But I don't want to let them into our world
Why would we want to open up to unpredictable weather
When it's warm inside with you

Chorus

Let's travel to forgotten places
And never leave our home
Just you and me between the spaces
And never leave our home

Land on a sandy beach
And lay ourselves down 'til sunset
Phosphorescence illuminates the waves in the unpredictable ocean
Of our dreamland

Chorus

12. Delicate Balance

Are you asleep
I'm not
Do you know
I'm lying here
Awake
Dreaming of your touch
Can't sleep
Hands restless
Lightly caress
Smooth skin
Eager to please
Not to wake
Divine slumber
Do you think it's strange
Learning to trust
The delicate balance
Do you know about the rules
When I'm with you
In the room
Lights flicker
Shine on your face
Learning to trust
Myself with you
Alone
Are you asleep
